RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF NON-COMPLIANT AMENDMENT

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Examiner Fletcher:

In response to the November 12, 2004 Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment, applicant attaches an e-mail from the Ms. Terry J. Dey, Deputy Commissioner for Patent Examination Policy, identifying that we do not have to list the claims unless an amendment has been made to the claims.

In regard to our Response filed November 3, 2004, the applicant did not amend the claims. Thus, the applicant does not have to list the claims.

We have attached a copy of the November 3, 2004 response for your convenience.

PATENT
51270-307011

Applicant believes that the foregoing remarks place the application in condition for allowance, and a favorable action is respectfully requested. If for any reason the Examiner finds the application other than in condition for allowance, the Examiner is requested to call either of the undersigned attorneys at the Los Angeles telephone number (213) 488-7100 to discuss the steps necessary for placing the application in condition for allowance should the Examiner believe that such a telephone conference would advance prosecution of the application.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: RE: Amendment Practice - Question

Dear Mr. Kendrick,

No complete claim listing is required when applicant is merely submitted arguments or an election in response to an office action. A claim listing is only required when amendments are being made to the claims. You may forward this email to the legal instruments examiner if you like. She can also contact our office directly by telephone if she has questions about 37 CFR 1.121. The number is 571-272-7703.

I hope this helps,

Dear Ms. Dey,

Thank you for your assistance.

The application number is 10/722,254 (the application is Muraki and the Filing Date is 11/25/03). I did not provide it in the first place because I did not want to seem confrontational to the Legal Instruments Examiner. I just wanted to make sure I understood the rule.

Mark

Subject: Amendment Practice - Question

Message Directed to Gena Jones, Joe Narcavage, and Elizabeth Dougherty:

I am a patent attorney. On a case that we are responsible for, we filed a response with no amendment to the claims. The response was labeled as a "Response." According to our reading of the change in amendment practice, if we do not make amendments to the claims, then we do not have to list or set forth the claims in the response (and thus we did not). The Legal Instruments Examiner said we filed a non-compliant amendment because in the "Remarks" section of our response, we set forth a claim (in order to distinguish it over the prior art) and thus we should have listed all of the claims.

Please help me clear this up and tell us what the proper rules are.
